Minnesota law prohibits private employers from inquiring about criminal history or conducting a criminal background check as part of an initial job application. However, it is important to notify you that Restoration Services, Inc., often contracts for projects with agencies of the State of Minnesota, and the State forbids persons with certain criminal histories from working on these projects. The individual hired for this position must be eligible to work on all Restoration Services contracts, including projects for the State, so applicants may be disqualified due to criminal history.
